

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH at Richmond, Va., the northern portion of the New School Presbyterian Church, feeling themselves aggrieved by the action of the General Assembly recently held at Cleveland, Ohio, are to hold a Convention at Blacksburg, Va., commencing on the 27th inst., to consider the same and proper to be done.

There is no doubt but that they will discontinue themselves entirely from the above named Assembly, but whether they will unite with the Old School General Assembly, (which is more conservative than the other body on the subject of Slavery) or whether they will form a new organization remains to be seen.

The following are the names of persons mentioned at Richmond as participants:

5th inst.: "The Committee of arrangements is directing, daily, the names of Delegates, who are coming to the Convention on the 9th.— From present prospects, the attendance will be such as to give importance to any measures that the Convention may adopt, in reference to the future course of our Church." The Lexington

Presbytery recommends that the Southern Synod and Presbyteries "remain in an independent condition, until God in His providence shall appoint out, more clearly than we can now discover, the path of duty for us." The Oange Presbytery instructs its delegates "to use all proper measures to secure a union with the Pres-
