

Staunton Spectator.

JOSEPH A. WADSWELL,
L. WADSWELL,
Proprietors.

TERMS.

The "SPECTATOR" is published every week on Wednesdays, and is sent to subscribers by mail, or by express, at the rate of $1.00 per annum in advance. Single copies are sent free of charge.

Advertisements of one line (or less) inserted for the first time, will be charged for at the rate of $1.00 per square for the first three insertions, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent insertion.

Professional Cards, not exceeding seven lines, will be inserted for one year for $10.00, and for three years for $25.00. One square (ten lines) for one year, $5.00.

Two squares (twenty lines) for one year, $10.00. Three squares (thirty lines) for one year, $15.00. Four squares (forty lines) for one year, $20.00.

One third column (thirty lines) for one year, $10.00. One half column (thirty lines) for one year, $15.00. One column (thirty lines) for one year, $20.00.

For advertising for the first time, will be charged for at the rate of $1.00 per square for the first three insertions, and twenty-five cents for each subsequent insertion.

AMERICAN HOTEL.

THIS new and elegant hotel is now open for the reception and accommodation of visitors. The proprietors assure the public that every effort will be made to please their guests.

The Stages of HANNAH, BROWN & CO., arrive and depart from this hotel, where their only office is to be found.

Stanton, Jan. 25, 1857.—M.

TYLER & SON.

GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
136 Cary Street, RICHMOND, VA.

SOLE AGENTS OF THE VIRGINIA TOBACCO COMPANY, for the sale of which, and selection of goods offered, their senior partner, John Tyler, (with a business experience of over 30 years) will give his personal attention.

(Richmond, Jan. 25, 1857.—M.)

JAMES GORDON.

GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANT,
RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

SOLE AGENTS OF THE VIRGINIA TOBACCO COMPANY, for the sale of which, and selection of goods offered, their senior partner, John Tyler, (with a business experience of over 30 years) will give his personal attention.

Office at the Store of John N. Gordon, 14th Street, Richmond, June 5, 1857.—M.

J. M. HANGER.

ATTORNEY AT LAW, STAUNTON, VA.

Will practice in all the Courts held in Staunton, and in the Circuit Courts of Albemarle and Rockingham. Office in the brick row, in the rear of the Court House.

Nov. 15, 1856.—M.

BOOK AND PAPER WAREHOUSE.

JOHN BERGESS,
BOOKSELLER AND PAPER WAREHOUSE.

No. 34 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md. April 1, 1857.—M.

BUTTS & BICKETTS.

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
FOREIGN FRUIT, NUTS, &C.,
8, S. Corner Baltimore and Liberty Streets,
Baltimore, April 1, 1857.—M.

W. M. SMITH.

Wholesale Dealer in Prime Street, Staunton, Va.

All kinds of Country Produce entrusted to his care, and sold at the lowest prices.

SELF-SEALING CANS—SPRAYS PATENT.

ENTIRELY new and improved, and the most perfect and reliable of all the cans now in use. They are made of the best material, and are perfectly sealed, and will keep any liquid in them for years without spoiling.

Stanton, July 15, 1857.

REDUCTION IN PRICES.

With the view of clearing out our stock of Berries, Tinware, and Glassware, we are determined to offer them at prices to suit the times.

Stanton, August 5, 1857.

KIRKWOOD HOUSE.

PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE,
JOHN H. & A. W. KIRKWOOD,
Proprietors.

Stanton, March 25, 1857.—M.

R. L. DOYLE.

Attorney at Law, Staunton, Va.

Office at the Court House, Staunton, Va.

POETRY.

Close to Clara. A BALLAD.

By JOHN C. HARRIS.

Dear Clara, I wish you were here:

The prettiest spot upon earth:

With everything charming, my dear—

Heaven, badinage, mirth and merriment:

Such words of magisterial beauty, which

Whom you will, if they please,

And in the sweetest of talks.

We go every morning, like geese,

To drink at the favorite spring:

Six tumblers of water a piece

Is simply a regular thing.

For such is the wonderful virtue

Of that rather unpleasant first

Now and then you must have it:

Unless you should happen to burn:

And then what a gasping sight!

What talk about William and Harry:

How Julia was spending last night:

And why Miss Horton should marry:

Dear Clara, I've happened to see

Full many a time the slaughter.

But you would not be so cruel:

Is nothing to be said with water!

Approach of the Spring—here you heard

Of a young man, who, as it were,

"The Spring—keep it from falling—"

With words so encouraging about:

And from the pen of a young lady

The title of "Gossip" no doubt:

The pleasant to come at the reason—

Is the general sense which brings

Such all sorts of folks, in the Spring.

To stop a few days at the house:

Some come to partake of the waters,

(The sensible, old-fashioned ones),

Some come to dine with their daughters,

And some to dine with their sons:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

Some come to exhibit their faces,

And some to exhibit their graces:

Some come to exhibit their shoulders,

And some to exhibit their waists:

To My Elderly Friends.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

There are two extremes, my friends, to which we are all liable: one is to be too young, and the other is to be too old.

Instant in Horses.

PUBLIC SALE OF ESTATE IN
NACE.—In obedience to a decree of the Maryland Lotteries, for 1990, 1991

BRILLIANT SUMMER GRAND CON-SOLIDATED LOTTERY OF MD. C. & L.
to be drawn Saturday, September, 20th, in Baltimore, Maryland.
[Seal] Drawings conducted under the supervision of the State Lottery Commissioners.

75 Fumblers - 14 Brown Jockeys.
1	$2,000	$20,000
2	15,000	20,000
3	10,000	20,000
4	5,000	20,000
5	4,000	20,000
6	3,000	20,000
7	2,000	20,000
8	1,000	20,000
9	1,000	20,000
10	1,000	20,000
11	1,000	20,000
12	1,000	20,000
13	1,000	20,000
14	1,000	20,000
15	1,000	20,000
16	1,000	20,000
17	1,000	20,000
18	1,000	20,000
19	1,000	20,000
20	1,000	20,000

20.5	40	112.00
17.5	50	112.00
17.5	100	112.00
5.50	40	222.75
7.225	50	222.75

prices amounting to $1,500.00.

Whole $10; Half $10; Quarter $10; Eighth $10	$1.00
Certificate of Purchase of 20 Whole, 50 Half, 100 Quarter, 200 Eighth	$1.00
10 Half	75.00
50 Quarter	75.00
20 Eighth	85.00

HAVANA PLAN OF SINGLE NUMBERS
 NOW BECOME SO POPULAR—GRAND
 CONSOLIDATED LOTTERY OF MD. EXTRA CASH
 $100,000.00. To be drawn in Baltimore, Saturday, September 20th 1937.

SPLENDID SCENES.

	Capital Prices.	Approx. Prices.
1 Prize of	$33,000	4 of
1 Prize of	11,760	4 of
1 Prize of	5,000	5
1 Prize of	5,000	10
1 Prize of	4,000
1 Prize of	4,000	15
1 Prize of	4,000	15

1 Prize of	4,000
1 Prize of	2,500
1 Prize of	2,500	16 of	10
1 Prize of	2,500
1 Prize of	3,000
4 Prizes of	2,500	16 of	8
4 Prizes of	1,500	16 of	4
4 Prizes of	1,000	30 of	4
175 Prizes of	500	700 of	4

1,000 Prizes amounting to $175,000

Whole Tickets $2.00 Halves $1.00 Quarters .50

Please address all orders for Tickets in the above Magnificent Scheme, to:

H. H. HUBBARD & CO.,
No. 39 FAYETTE ST., or Box No. 60,
August 26, 1897. Baltimore, Maryland.

ON SALE—WASH SPRINGS PROP-ERTY, REAL AND PERSONAL.—The Trustees of the Washington Springs Association have for the purpose of raising the division of the land, desirable and valuable property, of

for it is sale. It is situated at Nash Corn. Home, a beautiful and fertile valley, on the main leading Stage Road from East to West, 15 miles West of the Village of Central Railroad at Millboro', depot, and forty miles East of the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs. SEVERAL TRACTS OF LAND ARE OFFERED, including a grove of pines of which rich, well watered, under a good soil, with a fine stream of water running through it in a good state of cultivation; no other view of the GRAZING FARM, it is of superior quality, and has the advantage of an extensive MOUNTAIN RANGE. The picturesque Mountain Scenery is beautiful and extensive. This ancient and celebrated WATERING PLACE also enjoyed the beautiful and scenic scenery, the warm and friendly atmosphere of the Hotel, the fine climate, health-giving and superior pure water. There are five Warm Baths of temperatures 94, 95, 96, 97, and 98

Fahrenheit. Two of these Warm Baths are also Cold Spring Baths adjoining. As many more could be made as would be desirable, with very little more expense. The Warm Springs may be said to be described as the PARADISE of WARMERS PLACES.
The Buildings are of the most modern and immaculate style. The HOTEL, other handsome, suitable and well-arranged Buildings for the accommodation of about 200 Visitors. The Hotel Establishment is refurnished with new, good and comfortable Furniture.

TERMS.—The Terms proposed for the Real Estate are, one-fourth of the purchase money in hand, or negotiable note at 6 days; with interest; the balance of the purchase money in four equal annual payments with interest from the date of each payment. Vested and unvested interest will be sold at first-rate Cook, a Negro Man, his wife and three Children, likely, The Personal Property, such as a large, elegant, and well sorted stock of Furniture, about 60 or 70 head of the best of stock, Horses, Wagons, Carriages, Stock

Loge, Farming Creek, Et. will be sold at a public sale, at the residence of the real estate, of which the lot will be given. There is a very strong probability that the Manassas gap and Alexandria Springs will pass by the Warm, Hot and Healing Springs, and the route to the Washington route to the City of the Cotuiting and Ohio Railroad.

GEO. MAYNE,
D. W. Smith
CHAS. C. FRANCISCO, } Probitors.

July 8, 1855.—ff.

Printing Premises and Type for Sale.
THE subscriber having retired into an arrangement by which the True American and Opinionator have been consolidated, and having, consequently, no longer any use for the premises and type of the True American, now offers them for sale. As the material used in the publication of the True American is of the highest quality, and the type is of the best, and the premises are of the most convenient and healthy, the subscriber is confident that the purchaser will find it to his advantage to purchase the same.

JOB OFFICE connected with it, in now for sale, and will be sold upon such terms as will make it to the interest of those in want of printing materials to purchase them at once.

In stock are comprised an excellent FOUR-COLOR PRESS and HANS PRANS, manufactured by A. B. Taylor of New York City, and such furniture and stationery as is used in the best Newspaper and Job Office in the country.

There is not an office in the State, outside of this one, whose stock of materials will compare, in quantity, quality or variety, with that now offered upon reduced terms.

The type are as good as new, so may be seen by examination of the paper published with them. The galley proof is also perfect, so that no other type has been used but a short time, and a considerable proportion have never been used at all.

[illegible]

BROAD STREET HOTEL.—The Proprietor of this old and popular Hotel begs leave to inform his friends and the public that he has now having it fitted up in complete order, and is ready to accommodate all who may give him a call, in the best and most satisfactory manner. His chambers are large, airy, and comfortable, supplied with the best of everything that the markets afford, and his table is inferior to no other well kept hotel in the State. By ordering his rooms and accomodations in advance, he can please every one, and his servants, he feels assured that can please every most fastidious.

He is also prepared to accommodate families in the most comfortable manner, and at a moderate rate, by BOARD, by the week or month; and so that the house has a convenient private entrance, by street, for ladies, he believes that they will find it a most agreeable and comfortable place. By Board by the month, to no other house.

BELIEVING that all will find the BROAD STREET HOTEL, a desirable place of enjoyment, the best place to stay at.

J. M. YOUNG
Richmond, August 12, 1867—tags

"BUTTER" SALE OF HANDSOME TOWN PROPERTY.—As trustees of Dr. A. M. Smith's in a deed of record in the Clerk's Office of this County, we have the honor to announce that we are about to sell by public auction, on Wednesday, the 14th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., the following described premises, viz.: One lot of land, situated in the town of Richmond, Virginia, containing one acre and one-half, more or less, bounded on the north by the lot of John S. Smith, on the east by the lot of John S. Smith, on the south by the lot of John S. Smith, and on the west by the lot of John S. Smith. The above premises were formerly occupied as a residence by Dr. Smith; and the furniture in the same, including the contents of the house, are also for sale. The terms of sale are cash. Terms very reasonable. Title unquestioned.

June 18, 1867.—W.
IMBODEN & HARRIS

FOR SALE—A FARM OF 280 ACRES NEAR STAUNTON, VA.—The farm on which resides the late Mrs. Thomas H. Brown, and of which are well timbered, is for sale. The buildings are handsome and spacious and the land is well watered by the North Fork of the Shenandoah River. It will be sold on easy terms. Address W. M. B. STANLEY, Staunton, Va., July 15, 1907.

FOR SALE.—The very distinctive Cherry Hill on Greenwood in Orange County, Va. is for sale. It is well situated, well watered, well timbered, and comprises, and the property is well worth the attention of our people. It is situated in one of the most beautiful spots in the State. The price is $10,000. For terms, apply to W. M. B. STANLEY, Staunton, Va., July 15, 1907.

REYNOLDS' REFRIGERATOR.

[illegible]

VICTORY IS OURS!
UCIL is the promise of Science in this age that nothing seems impossible. That there are new scientific discoveries being made every day, no

MALE COMPLAINTS.
CHRONIC GONORRHEA,
STRICTURES,
DYSURIA,
OBSTRUCTIONS
all diseases arising from venereal and improprie

[illegible][illegible]

other substances of a Toxic class unavailable, or injurious. We take the liberty in marking, (in Italics), the names of the various articles, which we think it is most cordially to concur with Mr. Placer in his opinion, that it is not only safe, but that it is a medicine which is perfectly pleasant in its taste and odor, but immediate in its action, and it is the only medicine which we have ever known to be used on business or medical advice, as explicit directions are given for its use, and it is not necessary to administer it to convince the most skeptical will accompany each bottle.

It is sold in 12 or six bottles for $5. Delivered by express. Prepared and sold by

W. H. BELMOLD,
Practical and Analytical Chemist,
No. 53 South Third street, below Chestnut,
(Aurora) Building, between Adams and
To be had of LEWIS & KENT, Stanton, Jo. T. A. Lill, Wagon-makers, and of Druggists and Dealers in the United States, London and Paris Livorno.

1858-1859.

CHURCH FARM LANDS FOR SALE.
We now prepared to sell about 1,500,000 Acres or more of the best of the Church lands in the State of Illinois, on long credits and at low rates of interest. These lands were granted by the Government to aid in the settlement of the West, and are the most rich and most fertile in the world. They extend from the mouth of the Mississippi to the Rocky Mountains.

[illegible]

The Title is perfect—and when the final payments are made, Deeds are executed by the Trustees as required by the Act, and the title is then conveyed to the purchasers, which convey to them absolute titles free from all liens and clear of every incumbrance, and the title is perfect.

THE PRICES are from $6 to $30, to include the cost of the land, the cost of the survey, and the cost of the credit for years.

Those who purchase on long credit, give notes secured by mortgage, and pay the interest after date, and are allowed to improve one-tenth annually for five years, and the balance of the land under cultivation, the end of that time.

Competent Surveyors will accompany those who purchase, and will make a full and true and aid in making selections.

There are no taxes on the land as rich and valuable as those which have been disposed of.

SECTIONAL MAPS will be sent to any one who will send a note for $1.00, and will be sent by express, containing numerous instances of successful settlements, signed by responsible and well-to-do farmers, and will also contain a full and complete description of the State—also the cost of freight, price of the map, and the cost of the survey, and the cost of the survey.

Any person who will be cheerfully give on application, either personally or by letter, in English,

JOHN WILSON,
Lead Commissioner of the Illinois State Police,
Office in Illinois Central Railroad Depot, Chicago, Illinois.
[April 11, 1934—4m.]

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.—The undersigned, having returned from the northern markets, may be able to supply you with the goods you are looking for at appreciating public a large, select and beautifully made stock of READY MADE CLOTHING. It comprises a full line of Men's Suits, Ties, Shirts, and Underwear. He is ready and anxious to wait upon his customers, and make them comfortable.

To be without any of lip or beard,
A favored gentleman from tip to toe,
To be without a pair of shoes,
Patronage likewise bestowed, and asks continuance the same. Of the best grade of clothing and underwear, and has stock of clothing before-mentioned elsewhere.

J. POLYAK,
Roosea Corner W. V. Hotel,
Rinceton, April 12, 1934.

PETER REEDER, Graduate of the Philadelphia
College of Podiatric Medicine, is now in Chicago, Wholesale and Retail Druggist, Cor. 16th and Main Streets, 2nd Floor.

REEDER is a chemist, pharmacist and the trade generally, a complete analyst of meats and venal drugs, MEDICINES,
POISON, CATASTROPHES, and all other poth and Nail Products; Surgical, Pet Chewing and

[illegible]

(continued)