Prominent Rebels Claiming the President's Pardon.

MORE ABOUT BLOCKADE RUNNING AT WILMINGTON.

AFFAIRS IN WASHINGTON CITY.

From North Carolina.
New York, Dec. 28.—The following is telegraphic from North Carolina has been received by an arrival at this port:

The oath of allegiance has been administered to a number of rebel officers and soldiers who have recently come into our lines, by which they accept the pardon offered by the President. They bring intelligence that a large number who are still in the rebel army do not like at their own homes.

The plan of leaving the abandoned plantations in Eastern North Carolina, as adopted by Gen. David Houston, supervising agent of the Treasury Department, at this place, is proving a great success to the Department as well as great benefit to the returning slaves of both colors.

From Washington.
Washington, Dec. 28.—The property of forty persons in this District has been confiscated. Among the latter cases are Gov. Fletcher, of Virginia, and Judge Campbell, late of the Supreme Court.

The trials are running regularly to the Army of the Potomac.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.
Washington, Dec. 29.—Advices from the army this morning state that all is quiet there—nothing of note transpiring.

The Boston Advertiser publishes a letter from the Boston South Garrison dated the 22d inst., which says: "An expedition is about starting; all in a hurry and uncertainty. No one knows its destination, but the fact that it is commanded by Gen. Seymour indicates that it is of importance, as he is a fighting man. The order to strike took us given to 500 soldiers, and I think the whole force off. The expedition is formidable, both in men and gun-boats. Two Monitors accompany the fleet, and some heavy work is looked for. It is generally supposed that a movement is designed upon Savannah, in connection with an attack upon Charleston."

THE ONLY TRUE PROPRIETARY.—The Only True Proprietor, The Only True Proprietor, Ltd. BROADWY'S REGULATING PILLS.

"I would rather have one box of Dr. Bayley's Pills than another in the world. They are pills that cure. When you take a dose of these pills, you can depend upon the expansion of the diseased humor from the body, and the removal of the disease. They are pills that will actuate the heart, and the liver, after an operation ordered by Bayley's Pills, are left clean and healthy as the stomach would be after a dose of lobelia. No straining, weakness, or wrenching pains of piles, or tenesmus, not a thorough and natural evacuation is the result."

"The name of one of the distinguished physicians in the world. There were three words dictated: 'Bayley's Pillcure pills that cure.' The sufferer of Liver complaint, Proptosis, Constipation, Biliousness, Catarrhus, Jaundice, Drsy, may rely upon these pills in the case of six boxes, and the doctor after an operation ordered by Bayley's Pills, are left clean and healthy as the stomach would be after a dose of lobelia. No straining, weakness, or wrenching pains of piles, or tenesmus, not a thorough and natural evacuation is the result."

Dr. EDWARD A. WILLSON,
Physician, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Madame Porter's Corrective Balsam has long gained the truth that there are first principles in Medicine there is no Science, and that Medicine is composed on principles which are to be manifested, Nature, and the God is in the composition, and creating a gentle internal warmth, and the best of all the effects of this Medicine. In remedial qualities one based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of blood through the lungs, heart, the muscles and sinews, to assist to perform the action of regulating the heat of the system, and in gently throwing off the heat of the system from the surface of the body. It is not a violent remedy, but smooth, and healing, and soothing, and effective, sold by all druggists at 15 and 20 cent per bottle.

READ WHO SAYS SO?

From the Rev. G. Beck, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pemberton, N.J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, New York:

"I have had a Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family, and have been so pleased with their effects that I will not let any one else use them. I know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in giving them to my friends, and in calling attention of those affected with the disease for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, for whom they are particularly adapted. The name will be sustained. In this more cheerfully than Hoofland's Bitters is entitled to the added, and it is a safe drink to all."

LEVI G. BECK.

For Dr. J. Newton Brown, D.D., Editor of the Christian Standard, Knowledge and Christianity, Philadelphia:

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their influence and effects, I yet find myself compelled to make an exception in the case of the Hoofland's Bitters, because I believe him to have received from any simple preparation, which may thus contri-
but to his recovery.

It is referred to Hoofland's
as a safe drink, prepared by a man who was scrupulous against them for
many years, under the impression that they were dangerous and injurious. I am glad to see that he has now become satisfied of their beneficial qualities, and that he now recommends them to his friends. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was a decided blessing to me. I had not done any bodily exercise, and had almost despaired of ever recovering. But Hoofland's Bitters had a most salutary effect, and have almost restored me to health. I am grateful to God for directing me to the use of them."

J. NEWTON BROWN, Phila.

From the Rev. J. H. Klemm, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Germantown, Pa.:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have frequently recommended Hoofland's German Bitters, but regarding the premises out of my appropriate place, I have in all due respect, and particularly in my defense, the following statement: That I have received from any simple preparation, which may thus contri-
but to his recovery.

It is referred to Hoofland's
as a safe drink, prepared by a
man who was scrupulous against them for
many years, under the impression that they were

J. H. KLEMm, Philadelphia.

From the Rev. Mr. H. Klemm, Pastor of the Baptist Church, Germantown, Pa.:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have used your German Bitters in my family frequently. I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that it is a safe and reliable medicine. I have it in the cabinet and most valuable remedy of which I don't see it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the disease.

Yours truly,

J. H. KLEMm, Germantown, Pa.

From the Rev. Warren Randolph, Pastor of Baptist Church, Germantown, Pa.:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters as a safe and reliable medicine. It is a remedy of great good and general utility. I have seen many cases remedied by the use of the Bitters,
and particularly in my defense, of the refusal of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart from the general rule of "never prescribe for any disease without a full knowledge of its nature and causes." I do not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the disease.

Yours truly,

J. WARREN RANDOLPH, Germantown, Pa.

From the Rev. H. J. Turner, Pastor of M. E.
Church, Germantown, Pa.:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have used your German Bitters in my family frequently. I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that it is a safe and reliable medicine. I have
it in the cabinet and most valuable remedy of
which I don't see it will be very beneficial to
those who suffer from the disease.

Yours truly,

J. H. TURNER, 725 N. 18th Street.

From the Rev. J. M. Lyons, former Pastor of the Cath. Ch. of St. John and M. I. M. Penna. Cath. Ch.:

New Rochelle, N.Y.—Dear Sir: I feel it is a pleasure than, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since I used them, and found them to be a great and very beneficial remedy. I have often recommended them to persons affected by that terrible disease, and have received from them many most flattering testimonies as to their great value.
In cases of general debility, I believe it is the best thing that can be experienced.

Yours truly,

J. M. LYONS, New Rochelle, N.Y.

From the Rev. Thomas Winter, Pastor of Rox-
burgh Baptist Church:

From the Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Religious Church, Katonah, Bronx County, Pa.:

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have used your German Bitters in my family frequently. I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that it is a safe and reliable medicine that did me much good. Hoofland's Bitters, I am very much improved by them, and living well.

ICE HOUSES.

Every family that can get access to Ice in the winter should have an Ice-house. It is a luxury in the summer that no one should voluntarily dispense with; and independent of its value as a luxury, it is never once used in a house-hold without ever thereafter being considered a necessity. Its inestimable value in many cases of sickness; its medicinal properties in many complaints incident to the heated season, particularly in affection of the bowels; and its utility in the preservation of meats, improvement further do, command it highly to all classes of people, and they should be without it.

The great difficulty that stands in the way of the general use of Ice, is the popular error that an Ice-house must necessarily cost considerable money and labor. This is a delusion that should be speedily dispelled.—The great difficulty in keeping Ice in the country has been that Ice-houses have almost invariably been constructed with too much care, labor and expense. It was once thought that Ice could be preserved only by a deep pit in the ground, walled up, drained, lined with tan or saw-dust, covered with straw, and kept hermetically sealed. Three years ago we found just such an Ice-house disfiguring our premises when we took possession of them. If for no other reason, the unsightly thatched over the squat, ill-shaped structure, within a few yards of the house, doomed it to destruction; but fortunately the proper preservation of Ice demanded its removal quite as imperatively as did its want of comeliness.

Underground Ice-houses are just the worst possible places to preserve it. They cost five times as much as a good Ice-house should cost, and waste fifty per cent of the Ice, while a cheaper and properly constructed building will save half the waste, afford easy access, and can be made ornamental by a few scalloped boards and the occasional introduction of a little whitewash. It is impossible to keep an underground Ice-house dry, and no one of ordinary intelligence need be told that moisture is the most destructive enemy that Ice has to encounter in the summer. Equally erroneous and fatal to the preservation of Ice is the popular idea that it must be kept closely confined from the air. Ice thus closed up in an air-tight building is destroyed by the moisture it creates itself, while the free circulation of air over the top of the Ice dissipates the deadly moisture and adds vastly to its safety.

Any man who can put up four corner posts and nail boards on them can build the very best kind of an Ice house. The location should be rather high, so that moisture will not gather about it. The posts can be sunk in the ground—they should be about ten feet high and four inches square will do; weatherboarded closely outside, and the earth packed about the bottom boards so as to prevent the circulation of air under the Ice. Ten inches of tan—or saw-dust is better if it can be had—should be thrown into the bottom of the house on the ground. Then a floor should be laid, not too closely, and inclining to the side where water will most readily be carried away from about the house. This with a roof completes an Ice-house that will preserve Ice ten-fold better than any of the old style houses, which cost ten fold more. It will improve an Ice-house to use posts eight inches square, line the building inside with light boards, and fill the space between the weather-boarding and lining with tan or saw-dust; but it is not necessary to the preservation of Ice. The roof should project over the side of the building, and there should be an open space of at least ten inches under the roof, by leaving off the top weather-board, so as to allow the frost possible circulation of air over the body of the Ice inside. By projecting the roof the rain cannot blow on the Ice, and thus ventilation is secured without endangering the Ice in wet weather. It will rather add to the value of the house to have good sized windows in each gable end, closed up by flat shutters so constructed as to admit air and exclude rain. These should be hung on hinges and in clear weather should be thrown open, and in wet weather closed. Ever bear in mind that the circulation of air over Ice cannot be too free.

In filling a simple, cheap Ice-house such as we propose, it is only necessary to lay ten inches of saw-dust on the floor, then lay your ice compactly, leaving a foot of space between it and the weather-boarding all around. If the weather is very cold when you put Ice up, as it should be, fill the crevices between the cakes, as well as possible and sprinkle water over each layer as long as it will freeze, and then the whole becomes one compact body of Ice. When filled up within two feet of the top of the square, it is full enough. Then fill the space between the weather-boarding and the Ice well with saw-dust, cover the Ice at least a foot with saw-dust, thatch your roof inside with straw to keep the heat of a low roof from effecting the Ice, and you have an Ice-house at a trifling expense that will keep Ice in the best possible manner. Such a simple, cheap structure is within the means of almost every family, and we assure our readers that the very simplicity of the building in its greatest virtue in preserving ice. We ask the readers of the Repository to try it, and they can enjoy the luxury of Ice all next summer at an imperceptible cost.

TREAD POWERS.

To the Editors of the Franklin Repository. Your issue of the 24th ult. you advocate the use of Tread-powers by Farmers. I have given them a thorough trial and will give you my experience. I have used the Tread power some eight months, and threshed over 2,500 bushels of grain with it in that time. I think them decidedly preferable to any lever power for driving Agricultural Machinery. With two horses weighing 1,100 and 1,050 lbs, I have threshed 102 bushels of white wheat three hours in the month of August. In the month of October I threshed 112 bushels of wheat and 28 bushels of rye from 6 o'clock A. M., to 11—making 140 bushels in half a day. This machinery and power manufactured by Wheeler, Melick & Co., Albany, the largest manufacturers in that line in the United States. They have manufactured and sold 8,000 of these Tread powers.

Yours, &c., ROBERT BLACK,
Greenwood, Dec. 1, 1863.

We have heretofore, in these columns, fully expressed our views as to the superiority of the Tread over the Lever power for farm purposes. O their capacity to perform all that is necessary about a farm, there can no longer be any doubt; and they present the vast advantages of always being in the barn without occupying much room; always ready for use, easily started, and requiring but two horses and four hands to thresh, clean and garner the grain. Besides they can be used on wet days, when no other work can be done, as everything is under cover, and it is so easily to get ready for threshing with them that a farmer can thresh large or small quantities, just as may suit his beat, while the larger threshers will the lower power require so much time to get them ready for work, that farmers cannot afford to put them in order to thresh a small quantity. With the tread-power and thresher ten minutes will suffice at any time to get the horses in their place and the machine started, and the whole work of threshing can be done just when the farmer can do nothing else; histraw can all be saved and used, by threshing small amounts at a time until he gets more room, and every kind of machinery for chopping, shelling, cutting, &c., can be attached to it with great facility, and the farmer will never want to wait a share of the public patronage.
