

THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY

BY MCCLURE & SONS.

CHAMBERSBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1863.

VOL. 70.—WHOLE NO. 3426.

Map Showing the Progress of the War for the Suppression of the Rebellion.

The Light Shaded Territory has been Won from Traitors by the Union Arm—The Territory in Black is now the Narrow Limits of Treason.

Franklin Repository.

LOCAL ITEMS.

GOSPEL WITH OUR FRIENDS.—We are unani-matedly for the gospel. We were never served in any official capacity, and never expect to. We have even sold horses of a politician, particularly an unsuccessful one, and in the present instance each our hands of any intention to meddle out of our sphere. Nothing but outraged humanity could bring us out, and outraged humanity has brought us out. Listen to our story and judge for yourselves. (To Black Republicans and Friends, O. C.)

Thursday was the great Democratic mass meeting day. We have nothing to say about "the drawling sons of toil," the unlettered, "the salt of the earth," and all that; nothing to say about the dogs and banners, nor even of the motto which borders Orntown immor-tal, which places that village among the wonders of the world, of the motto that will go down to posterity "Kite-king" the motto which some Asturian, Duthomey, Benin or Beffra wrote in future ages, setting out an aged fence rail, would have photographed for his negro grand-children, by negros Huguenots, and Michael Angelo and Murillo, and Zurbaran—who are yet to be. This motto was noticed by Joseph Pratte, Esq., of York, once the Editor of this paper. He that reads this article will never forget it. With what deep emotion he dwelt upon those solemn words, "Orntown can't go White Slavery," "Orntown can't go White Slavery," "—nor Ne-gro Equality." What a love for the white man does the first clause exhibit, and what a respect for the degraded white man in particular, the second. "Britons never, never will be slaves," and "Orntown will never, never, never go White Slavery" or Negro Equality." How well do we remember in our school-boy days the acute anguish we felt when a master or sharper neighbor "crapped" us: as we grew older we had to be "cut out" Sunday nights at the church door; and when we graduated into a dry goods store we didn't feel pleased when our opposition sold more than we did. Now, however, degraded white man can't admire or agree with Fred Douglass. We wouldn't under the circumstances. Now we don't think the white and black races equal; but when a negro does get ahead of a white man, why not admit it. Suppose, for instance, to be practical, that Orntown owned a row of houses. Whom would Orntown prefer as tenants, respectable negroes who would pay the rent, or some mean white men that don't? Suppose Orntown was attacked by the Rebels, who were just about spilling the torch to Orntown's houses and barns, would Orntown object to the timely arrival of a negro Union regiment who would cut in pieces their threatening enemy? Suppose—but that's enough; you may think so, but we have not forgotten the outrage that we threatened to expose.

One of many of the wagons in the Democratic procession was not full, in fact almost empty, and a bonus of fifty cents was offered to any that would ride in it. This tempted one of our Republicans to such a degree, that he undertook the job, the ride for nothing, and fifty cents for the disgrace. Would the world believe it? after the ride he was offered fifteen cents! fifteen cents for a ride in a Democratic procession; fifteen cents to be gazed upon by the youth and beauty of Chambersburg, in an open wagon; fifteen cents to be pointed at by the dirty fingers of ragged boys, as the Republican who had pulled him off fifteen cents! But behold, the worst is to come; that fifteen cents has been secured by us; we have it in our office, and can show it to the antiquarian. We give below as near as one can types will admit a facsimile of it—the color of the paper and the torn edges are untranslatable:

STATION, Va., May 23, 1863.

15
THE COUNTY OF AUGUSTA
will pay to bearer, at the office of the Treasurer,
FIFTEEN CENTS
In bankable currency when presented in sum of Five Dollars. By order of Court.
ROBERT GUY, Presiding Justice.

TRUTH. It is off our mind now, and for that was a Republicans bought. Are we Republicans to bear this? Does not this prove that the Rebel agents, assisted by renegade Democrats, are buying up Republican votes—the money furnished in profusion by the South. O, the Times! (not the Spirit and Times), O, the Manners!

Commissioner.—In the heading of the list which the family contains in the Times, its honored and beloved members, "He has gone to the unknown land, and from whose bound no return."

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days, and that these resolutions be recorded on the minutes of the society, and that a copy be transmitted to the parents of the deceased.

P. D. RAKER,
E. C. KENDRICK,
T. W. FRANKLIN,

Col. MONTGOMERY, of Vicksburg, Miss., and Hon. A. H. Chase, of New York, delivered most eloquent and effective Union speeches from the Court House steps on Wednesday evening last. Col. Montgomery is a southerner, was editor of the Vicksburg War, and has suffered almost everything but death in behalf of the Union cause. His rebuke of Northerners, high faces and copperheads who white and quibble about slavery was most pungent. Mr. Chase stumped New York for Seymour last fall, but like a patriot and an honest man, he deserted him when Seymour deserted the cause of the country.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A fatal accident, says the Mercedburg Journal, occurred in the neighborhood of Pottsville, Pa., a few days since, which terminated in the death of a young man named Henry Lane. From what we can understand, his brother Nelson was for some unknown reason in the act of shooting a dog. Henry interfered, when the revolver was accidentally discharged, killing him instantly. Both young men were from this vicinity, and enlisted in a cavalry company recruited a short time since, in Chambersburg, Capt. Miles and afterwards attached to the 21st Pa. C.

THE PRINTERS' DEVIL.—This popular monthly journal is rapidly increasing in circulation in all parts of the country, and we know of none which better deserves the public favor. It is every way fitted to the general interest of the State and no one, after seeing it, will willingly do without it.

BUT YOUR KEROSENE OIL from Golwicki, he is agent for one of the best oil companies in the State and always sells the best oil wholesale and retail.

TO PURIFY CIDER.—Persons wishing to purify cider can get a preparation at Miller & Remond's & Co's, for the purpose. It slopes gently and renders the cider clear and sparkling.

GO TO GOLWICKI'S wholesale and retail store, see the large stocks and get supplies.

THE RESIGNATION of Judge Woodward would give new hope to the despairing cause of treason, if the family contains in the Times its honored and beloved members, "He has gone to the unknown land, and from whose bound no return."

Resolved, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days, and

BRIEF WAR STORIES.

The Rebels acknowledge a loss of twelve thousand men, killed, wounded and missing at Chickamauga.

Bob Toombs of Georgia says he prefers death on the battle field to union with the North on any terms whatever. Let him take his choice by all means.

The recruiting officers in New Jersey now take a photograph of each man as he is enlisted. The plan brings horrible contortions upon the countenances of hasty jumpers.

It is a singular coincidence that the Indian name of the river near which Gen. Rosecrans fought his last terrible and bloody battle, that of Chickamauga, means "the Stream of Death."

Jeff Davis offers to release all the convicts in the Southern prisons if they will agree to join the rebel army. It is entirely proper that convicted murderers, thieves, and all manner of desperadoes and outlaws should be placed on an equality with the worse than criminal traitors and outlaws who have taken up arms against the Republic.

Gen. Hooker and staff arrived at Cincinnati, on the 20th ult. The General, in a few remarks, said that he was going to speak to the rebellion through the thunder tones of artillery and musketry. Gen. Butterfield also said that they were going to the front to fight traitors, and they wanted all loyal citizens to take care of traitors in the rear of the army.

Gen. McCook and Crittenden are relieved of their commands, and ordered to report to Indianapolis. The 20th and 21st Army Corps, formerly under these Generals, are consolidated, called the 4th Army Corps, and placed under command of Gen. Gordon Granger. A Court of Inquiry is to inquire into the conduct of the deposed Generals at the battle of Chickamauga.

A letter from Nashville, dated the 27th of September, says: "Since last Thursday reinforcements have been pouring down to Chattanooga, and on that day some twenty and thirty-four Parrott guns, lying here unused since Nashville fell, were forwarded. The first troops which have passed through the city were the Fifteenth Regulars. They marched like machinery and stood firm and erect as statues." It is stated that Gen. Pope is to have a command in the Army of the Cumberland.

Governor Brown is not satisfied with the manner in which Jeff Davis' agents in Georgia impeded private property for the use of the Rebel Government. He has therefore issued a proclamation, in which he announces, that while he does not intend to embarrass the Government, he "will protect the people against outrages, and all the State civil and military authorities are directed to assist persons in defending their property against illegal seizure."

GRANITE minds often utter the same sentiments, although chockfull of miles apart and as widely different in their natures. Thus the Richmond Examiner, the rebel organ of Jeff Davis, and Judge Woodward, the Democratic candidate for Governor, although separated by hostile lines, almost simultaneously utter the same sentiments in behalf of the cause of armed traitors. Here they are:

"The success of the Democratic party would be no longer doubtful, should Gen. Lee once more advance on Memphis. Let him drive Meade into Washington and we again raise the spirit of the Democrats, one fifth their number, and give confidence to their wavering friends."—Examiner.

"A man's arms are crossed, and remiss the rights of the slaveholders, and add much guarantees to our Constitution as will protect his property from the violation of religious bigotry or persecution, or else we must give up our Constitution and Union."—George W. Coddington.

An old Democrat writes us from Athens, Ohio, ordering the Emancipator sent to him, and says:

"I have always been a Democrat, and am one yet, but a War Democrat, and for sustaining the present Administration as the only hope of the Republic. I am for John C. Breckinridge for Governor of Ohio in preference to Vallandigham the candidate of rebels and sympathizers at home."

Sensible, patriotic Democrat is that man, and he will find thousands more with him in both Ohio and Pennsylvania.

A Constitutional Governor in New York refuses to preserve the peace of New York while the government enforces the draft, and 25,000 soldiers had to be drawn from the Army of the Potomac for the purpose. Now under General Burnside's guidance, he is marching, marching, strong and defiant Reservoir. Von der Gurtin, the Ingol-

Governor.

Franklin Repository.

CHAMBERSBURG: Wednesday Morning, Oct. 7, 1863.

UNION STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR.
ANDREW G. CURTIN, Centre.
FOR CHIEF JUSTICE.
DANIEL AGNEW, Beaver.

UNION COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLY.
T. JEFFERSON DAVIS, Chambersburg.
WILLIAM A. GREENCASTLE, York.
THE PROPTOGOATAT.
R. BRADFORD TAYLOR, Chambersburg.
JOHN HENRY COOPER, Adams.
FOR CLERK OF THE COURT.
W. G. MITCHELL, Gettysburg.
FOR COUNTY TREASURER.
JAMES M. COOPER, Adams.
FOR COMMISSIONER.
HENRY GOOD, Quaker.
FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOL.
JOHN DODGE, Franklin.
FOR ATTORNEY.
W. W. ANDERSON, Washington.

WE ARE compelled to omit several contributions this week, among them an interesting letter from Morehouse.

W. M. McCLELLAN Esq., will speak for the Union ticket at the following named places:
GREENCASTLE, Wednesday Evening, Oct. 7th.
SCOTLAND, Friday, Oct. 9th.
CHAMBERSBURG, Saturday, Oct. 10th.HOW FRANKLIN SPLIT. Senator from Northumberland, and a most able and eloquent advocate of the Union cause, will speak at the following places in Franklin county:
GREENCASTLE, Wednesday Evening, Oct. 7th.
SCOTLAND, Thursday, Oct. 8th.
QUINCY, Friday, Oct. 9th.
CHAMBERSBURG, Saturday, Oct. 10th.

UNION MEETINGS.

The Union meeting at Scotland has been arranged for Friday night. The meetings in other towns will be held as follows:
SCOTLAND, Friday October 10th.
GREENVILLE, Monday, Oct. 13th.
Good speakers will be in attendance.

THE SITUATION.

The aspect of affairs at Chattanooga daily improves as authentic accounts reach us. It is now clear that for the unequal combatting of McCook and Crittenden commands in the centre, Gen. Rosecrans would have achieved a decided victory. The unequal losses show how bravely our troops defended the Old Flag. The Rebel loss is not less than 20,000, while the Union loss is estimated to be 1,800 killed, 9,000 wounded and 2,500 captured—all about 13,000. Our last advices assure us that Rosecrans has an impregnable position at Chattanooga—that his flanks and lines of communication are safely protected, and we know that by this time he is largely reinforced. We hazard little in assuming that Rosecrans will in a very short time be made strong enough to advance against Bragg, and penetrate to Rome and Atlanta, where a vital point of treason can be reached. We look for another battle, of the most decisive character, to be fought by Rosecrans and Bragg within the next thirty days. It is evident that the great strength of both forces is to be tested there, as it involves the possession of Georgia and the safety of Mobile, Charleston and Richmond.

The Army of the Potomac is still holding the line of the Rapids, and Lee is on the south side well fortified. We do not anticipate any decisive operations there until the great issue at Chattanooga is decided. Should Rosecrans gain a positive advantage, Meade will doubtless advance against Lee, and encage him if necessary to keep him from succor to Bragg. Meade and Lee will content for the present to let each other alone, as a battle between them would decide nothing. Lee's defeat would not give us Richmond, nor would Meade's defeat give the rebels Washington. Lee seems to have abandoned all hope of the Democracy carrying Pennsylvania, and has therefore attempted to drive Meade back upon Washington to "raise the spirits of the Democrats," as advised by the Richmond Enquirer.

THE DAY—THE DUTY.

LOYAL MEN, of whatever party, your bleeding Country appeals to you to discharge your hoisted duty as a citizen on Tuesday next. The vote of Pennsylvania will determine the life or death of the Republic. It cannot live if the powers of the great States are thrown into faithless hands—it cannot die if the people declare by the election of positively loyal executives that it must be preserved for ourselves and posterity.

Either treason or loyalty must triumph at the next election. We would gladly state the issue otherwise—if truth could sanction it. If Judge Woodward shall be chosen Governor, it will send a thrill of joy throughout the desolated land of traitors. They hope and appeal for his success—

Their Generals are called upon to execute campaigns so as to "raise the spirits of the Democrats, confirm their timid and give confidence to the wavering" by driving the war-worn veterans of the Army of the Potomac back in disgrace upon our common capitol; and the organ of Jeff. Davis declares that the triumph of the Democratic party would be of more value to the traitor's cause than the "bloodiest victories!"

It would nerve every traitor's arm in his murderous work against our sons, our brothers, our fathers in the field. It would give confidence to every foe of our Government in place and in the face of all precedents, not only repeats herself, but with an appendix—the earth may have been shaken by the mighty thunders of Orntown, while undergoing the pangs of this second birth, and is possibly waiting with straining eyes and clasped hands in expectation: but Chambersburg alone, favored of the gods, has been permitted to grieve on this prolog. Lift up your heads O you hills, and open your ears that you may hear this the second edition of Orntown—"Orntown can't go white slavery nor negro equality."

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

FRIENDS OF THE GOVERNMENT will give one day—one earnest effort to this cause. It demands it by every consideration of patriotism, of humanity, of Christian fidelity to the powers ordained by Him who rules over all. With success to the government, we can and shall triumph over the foes of the Republic, and restore it to renewed beneficence and greatness, to higher and nobler aims for mankind, and unstained save by the crimsoned footprints of disloyal treason. Our is a common country—a common inheritance for ourselves and our children, and in its preservation our only hope of safety against anarchy and chaos. By all that is sacred to the citizen, duty now appeals to every brave and faithful man.

UNION MEN! the time for argument is past. The assaults of the foes of the government are about to be made with deadly purpose and fearful force. Close up the ranks, inspire the timid and rally for the Old Flag. One faithful day, one earnest, untiring effort, and the triumph must be for our honored Nationality, for the cause of Freedom!

ORTOWN HEARD FROM AT LAST.

Orntown cannot be called famous either in history or in song. She was not born great, neither has she had greatness imposed upon her, nor yet has she forged greatness out of stubborn circumstances by the mighty power of her own inherent energy. Nevertheless, Orntown is not without a history, a history true which the envy and malice of other towns, possessing far less merit than herself, have always labored to disparage and obscure, but which the honest historian, after witnessing the singular class of beings, but we have not space to relate them now. Men learned in the science of Politics say that on the 1st of October next, a fearful and overwhelming destruction is going to come upon this race of beings.

THE PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

We give on the first page of to-day a paper a map clearly exhibiting the vast achievements of the Union arms in the war for the preservation of the government. When treason culminated in causes, wicked war, it held every Southern State but Delaware firmly in its grasp. Traitors—old Democrats of course—were in the Executive chairs of all the Southern States, including Kentucky, Tennessee, Missouri and Virginia, and they forced, in some irregular way, an ordinance of secession through the legislatures of packed conventions. Every State on the map in black or shaded lines were at that time within the power, and at the mercy of traitors, and had to be wrested by bloody battles from their fatal embrace.

Thus started this war against the noblest and best government of the world. Two years and a half of conflict have crumpled up our history, and those who have fallen martyrs to the cause of Freedom—murdered by the last of unfeeling ambition. But they have not fallen in vain, nor with dishonor. For eighteen months the varying fortunes of the struggle often chilled the hopes of loyal hearts, and gave renewed confidence to the foes of the Republic; but to-day every patriot can point with pride to the substantial achievements gained by the Old Flag—Western Virginia is rescued, redeemed and comes as a new star in the galaxy of States. Kentucky has been restored entirely to the folds of the Union, and her faithful people have just voted by 60,000 majority against treason. Missouri, after witnessing bloody struggles on her soil, is at last safe from the fatal trend of the insurgents. Tennessee rejoices that the "pride of the Tyrant is broken," and that her people are all again free. Two-thirds of Arkansas, and nearly all of Mississippi and Louisiana, with all their capitals, are under the stars and stripes—rescued by the dauntless heroes of our troops; and all of the Indian Territory, New Mexico, of Arizona, and most of Texas, are among the rich fruits of our triumph. Florida is entirely restored to the Union; and parts of Georgia, of North and such as Orntown, are still under the sway of Jove in the mighty workshops of Vulcan, must have been laboring here. We have tried to remove this mighty name from the tomb where doubtless its own modesty, the modesty peculiar to great merit, has buried it; but for the world and posterity, the archives of Orntown are silent as the grave itself. Rest in peace thou Titan of thy race, Posture thyself with dignity, honor thy name; and like Solo's Blind Band, many cities will claim the honor of thy birth.

They will stand upon to execute campaigns so as to "raise the spirits of the Democrats, confirm their timid and give confidence to the wavering" by driving the war-worn veterans of the Army of the Potomac back in disgrace upon our common capitol; and the organ of Jeff. Davis declares that the triumph of the Democratic party would be of more value to the traitor's cause than the "bloodiest victories!"

It would nerve every traitor's arm in his murderous work against our sons, our brothers, our fathers in the field. It would give confidence to every foe of our Government in place and in the face of all precedents, not only repeats herself, but with an appendix—the earth may have been shaken by the mighty thunders of Orntown, while undergoing the pangs of this second birth, and is possibly waiting with straining eyes and clasped hands in expectation: but Chambersburg alone, favored of the gods, has been permitted to grieve on this prolog. Lift up your heads O you hills, and open your ears that you may hear this the second edition of Orntown—"Orntown can't go white slavery nor negro equality."

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It will cheer the hearts of the friends of Free Government everywhere—at home, in the despotisms of the Old World, and will break with the multitude of confidence upon the hunted, the oppressed, the persecuted friends of the Union now under rebel heel. It will give fresh heart and renewed hope to every gallant soldier now rallying around the flag, and will settle beyond doubt the ample power, the unfaltering purpose of the people and the government to preserve their Country and their institutions unimpaired. With his trumpet every friend of the Union will rejoice, and every traitor mourn.

The election of Gov. Curtin will declare to the North, to the South, to the world, that the Republic stands PRESERVED with honor, with strengthened Union, with lasting peace. It

Hon. Hiram C. Ward of Pittsfield has a valiant independent paper, the Pittsfield Courier, which is printed upon that great, good old Union ticket. George W. M. Curtis, of Pittsfield, has sent us Gen. W. M. Cushing, who goes to tell his honest story of great gallantry and high honor, and only deserves for the election of Curtis.

Curtis has not been nominated, as demanded by the Radical party, and invited Pittsfield to nominate him, and people and ranks show vote for "Copperhead ticket." Woodward of Pittsfield, he regards that of the Copperheads will move homeward, and he himself is in a good time to stand from under. Vote for Curtis.

In 1861, after Slavery had driven six States out of the Union, Judge Woodward apologized for treason and declared that Slavery "is divinely sanctioned if not divinely ordained." If so then mark the rebellion and this denouncing was divinely sanctioned in behalf of traitors. Vote for Curtis.

The candidates for Register and Recorder were both soldiers. Capt. McKeown was a Captain in the 77th, and was dismissed from the service, and naturally became a copperhead. Sergeant Strickler was in the 126th, lost an arm at Fredericksburg, and was honorably discharged. Vote as you like, but vote for Strickler.

The Richmond Esquire says that "the success of the Democratic party would be no longer doubtful should Lee once more advance on Meade." Do loyal men bear? Do the fathers, sons and brothers of the heroic Army of the Potomac seek a triumph at the polls that will nerve the blood arms of treason? If not, vote for Curtis.

The Harrisburg Post and Union says that Col. Thos. C. M'Farrell has not been connected with that paper for over a year, and adds—"but we feel warranted in saying that his Democracy is unquestionable." Of course it is! We heard him address a Convocation meeting in Philadelphia on Friday evening last.

We have received several numbers of the Knoxville (Tenn.) Daily Bulletin, printed by J. B. G. and thoroughly loyal in tone. We welcome it as a propoganda list, and long may it bring good tidings to the sorely oppressed Union men of East Tennessee.

The rebel Many writes from England that "Vallandigham waits and watches over the border pledged, if elected Governor of Ohio, to array it against Lincoln, and the war go for peace." Woodward and his friends entreat Vallandigham. Vote for the Union ticket.

An address has been issued to the people of Bedford county by the members of Co. F, 8th Reserve, signed by 26 Republicans and 14 Democrats, all the members present, protesting against the election of the Democratic ticket. Will loyal Democrats hear the brave soldiers?

The Age was started a few months ago by Gooch, Grand & Welsh. In ninety days the paper converted one of the editors, with the bulk of the brains of the establishment, to the Curtis cause. How long will it take to bring the other two around?

The Union meetings everywhere have been well attended, and the Old Green Stock will be herself on Tuesday next. The Union camp fires burn brightly in every district. One charge along the whole line, boys, and the victory will be for the Republic!

The Richmond Esquire calls upon Gen. Lee to "drive Meade into Washington and he will assuredly raise the spirits of the Democrats, confirm the timid, and give confidence to the wavering!" Loyal men! vote the Union ticket!

The Spirit says that "several companies of soldiers sent invitations to the speakers (Democrats) to address them" near Waynesboro. All right—hope the speakers did so, and that they advised all the soldiers to do! Did they do so?

W. B. Reed and Jeff Davis; the Philadelphia Age and the Richmond Esquire; C. B. Duncan and Roger A. Pryor; the Chattanooga Advertiser (now on the wing) and the Valley Spirit, are all for Woodward's election. Vote for Curtis.

BECOME a loyal man was one of the first to respond to the call of his country when Souther was bombarded, and served with fidelity during his term, is no reason why he should not be elected Prothonotary. Vote for Maj. Taylor.

UNION MEN! let not a single loyal vote be lost at home or Tuesday next. A full vote will give a decisive victory to the entire Union ticket. Poll every voter—every vote, for your country and your country's cause.

Gov. Sherman, Governor of Georgia, has sent 1,000 soldiers to strengthen our gallant armies since he entered office. Pennsylvania is the strongest state in the Union. Vote for Curtis.

EVERY State that had a Republican Governor in 1861,無論 the Governor, and its holly command the bones of her brave soldiers in the field. Vote for Curtis.

The triumph of the People Democracy in Pennsylvania, says the Richmond Esquire, would be more disastrous to the cause of freedom than the "Bleeding" victory."

Hon. James M. McKeown presided at the great Union meeting at Lancaster on Saturday last. Mayor the Democratic candidate for Congress, against Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, voted for Curtis.

The Union Committees of Franklin and Fulton passed the required resolutions in favor of paying all military damages suffered by our people, out of the State Treasury. Vote for Curtis.

The Presidents has issued a proclamation setting apart the last Thursday of November as day of Thanksgiving and Prayer and Praise. We shall give the proclamation in our next issue.

Serving a term of faithful and honorable service in the field with our gallant volunteers does not unfit a man for the responsible duties of Assemblyman. Vote for Lieut. Nil.

Hon. Cox voted to refuse the use of the Hall of Representatives to those two old Jackson Democrats, Gov. Johnson and Wright, because they wanted to speak for the Union. Vote for Gray.

Every position of honor and profit on the Union ticket is awarded to a heroic soldier, excepting Clerk of the Courts, and given to a disabled man. Vote for the Union ticket.

WOODWARD decided that the soldiers of the Republic should not vote. The soldiers and soldiers' friends will decide that he shall not be Governor. The hours will then be easy. Vote for Curtis.

The election of Woodward would fulfill like the chill of death upon our war-worn veterans in the field who are battling for the preservation of our Nationality. Vote for Curtis.

The loss of a rebel at Fredericksburg by a rebel bullet does not disqualify a man for the duties of Registering wills and Recording deeds. Vote for Sergeant Strickler.

A BROKEN thigh, the testimony of terrorism on the battle field defending the Old Flag, does not incapacitate a man as an accountant. Vote for Col. Elder.

ADMIRABLE men of doubtful loyalty can earn a livelihood either here or in the dominions of Jefferson Davis. Vote for Mitchell.

APARTHEID! The traitors had stolen our arms and robbed our muni, Judge Woodward says—"let the Southern States go in peace." Union men will vote for Curtis.

Riot, robbery, arson and murder were the fruits of Democratic rule in New York. Vote for Curtis, the law-abiding and law-enforcing Executive.

JACOBY voted to give the Hall to Govs. and Wright to speak for the Union, and was thrown overboard. Vote for Lieut. Nil.

WOODWARD declared in the Constitutional Convention that Germans and other foreigners should not have the right to vote or hold office. Vote for Curtis.

THE ordinary expenses of the State Government have been less during the term of Gov. Curtis than at any time during the last twelve years. Vote for Curtis.

VALLANDIGHAM voted against giving our brave soldiers shoes, clothing, pay or food. He is endorsed by Woodward. Vote for Curtis.

CURTIN has reduced the State debt over one million two hundred thousand dollars during the last year. Vote for Curtis.

VOTE for the Old Flag—to give it new trumpet—to shield it from dishonor.—Vote for Curtis.

EVERY State that had a Democratic Governor succeeded in 1861. Vote for the loyal Executive—Andrew G. Curtis.

VOTE EARLY, Union men, and then see that every loyal neighbor of yours votes also.

PLEASE MY COMPROMISE.

Is a late speech delivered by Alex. K. McClure, at Norristown, he thus discusses the question of Peace by Compromise:

Peace by compromise! It would be the death-bell of our liberties—the last dying breath of the Republic. [Applause.] With whom, and for what are we to compromise? Are we to meet over the graves of our martyred, dear friends, with the valiant, heroic, and true sons of this wide, wide, wide nation, and treat for the life of the Republic? [Applause.] Who would the man associated with such a purpose in his home then meet with the assassin over the mangled bodies of his household gods? Would the parent then meet with a child that streaked with death, and the tragic blow, and made peace by concession to mingled robbery and murder? Friends, we are bound but to oppose.

The Advertiser, Worcester, Mass., says that the "People's ticket" will be more disastrous to the cause of freedom than the "Bleeding" victory.

Hon. James M. McKeown presided at the great Union meeting at Lancaster on Saturday last. Mayor the Democratic candidate for Congress, against Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, voted for Curtis.

The Union Committees of Franklin and Fulton passed the required resolutions in favor of paying all military damages suffered by our people, out of the State Treasury. Vote for Curtis.

The Presidents has issued a proclamation setting apart the last Thursday of November as day of Thanksgiving and Prayer and Praise. We shall give the proclamation in our next issue.

Serving a term of faithful and honorable service in the field with our gallant volunteers does not unfit a man for the responsible duties of Assemblyman. Vote for Lieut. Nil.

Hon. Cox voted to refuse the use of the Hall of Representatives to those two old Jackson Democrats, Gov. Johnson and Wright, because they wanted to speak for the Union. Vote for Gray.

Every position of honor and profit on the Union ticket is awarded to a heroic soldier, excepting Clerk of the Courts, and given to a disabled man. Vote for the Union ticket.

WOODWARD decided that the soldiers of the Republic should not vote. The soldiers and soldiers' friends will decide that he shall not be Governor. The hours will then be easy. Vote for Curtis.

There is one certain way to lasting honorable peace, with strengthened Union and a nobler Nationality as its fruits. It is a ceaseless prosecution of their enemies. This is the only way to secure the safety of the nation, and to keep it in the saddle. Then comes the vindicated majesty and magnanimity of a great nation, but not till then. [Applause.] They may have a Government to just to the fame of the heroic dead and to the heroic living, but the best is yet to come. Then comes the vindication of both, the best and their own, and the world will present them properly authenticated for settlement.

JOHN GERMAN, FANNET TWP., Adams, Oct. 7.

Franklin Intelligencer.

POLITICAL NEWS.

Ames T. Bissell is an independent Union candidate for Assembly in Northumberland County.

By voting for Curtin, a man endorses the policies of two坐, and the right of soldiers to vote.

By voting for Curtin, a man shows a disposition to sustain the government in its principles and its policies.

By voting for Curtin a man shows his disposition to uphold the Constitution and Union now represented by the Slave Power.

"We demand that South Carolina out of the Union immediately, or, if so far as possible, of us all."—Gen. W. Woodward.

Gen. H. W. Tyler of Ohio, a life-long Democrat, has announced the reasons of which the Union must be torn in part, is simple to Union and America.

By voting for Woodward, a man endorses resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

A Western exchange says the, "the difference between a secessionist and a rebel, is that one votes for the Union with all the rest, the other for the Union with a few."

The largest political meeting ever held in northern Pennsylvania was convened at Scranton. It was addressed by Governor Curtin, Hon. G. A. Gray, General Bruce of New York, and others.

By voting for Curtin, a man secures three years of health and economy in the State Administration, by which millions of dollars were saved to the people of Pennsylvania within the last three years.

Patriots need not be long in doubt as to how they should vote. Let them ascertain which ticket Jeff Davis and the rebels with elected and vote against that ticket. They will be sure to vote right.

A vote for Curtin will be a silent God-speed to every war-worn soldier in the field. Would you cheer the hearts of our brave defenders, then vote for the "Soldier's Friend." Andrew Green Curtin.

The Pittsburgh Commercial affirms that general McAllister, spokesman of Pennsylvania politics, expressed himself anxious for the re-election of Mr. Curtin, who, it is said, in the State, he should speak and vote for him.

By voting for Woodward, a man can ensure that the South never impairs the civil rights of all Northern inhabitants while the destroyers of individual equality which the free white men of the free States now possess.

By voting for Curtin, a man prepares himself to a lasting peace by giving considerations to save an eternal warfare, than surrender the sword of the National Government over to the National domain.

Michael Burke, long time a leading man among the Democratic Irregulars in Harrisburg, has resolved to support a man for office who would not let Jeff Davis, and hence oppose W. Woodward and support the Democratic candidate.

James E. Crawford of the Democratic candidate in Assembly in Blair County, Main Line, has also resolved to support the Democratic candidate, with the fourth of July and American Eagle as his platform. Col. McMillen will be elected by 100.

In the county of Lancaster nearly all the old Democratic leaders are supporting Curtin, with the exception of James Buchanan, who, to use the expression of the lamented H. J. Mahaffey, of Berwick, "only joined the Democracy in order to become a traitor."

George M. Cattell, Esq., of Girard, a prominent Democratic Democrat, a recently engrafted member of the Union State and County Tickets. He is a gentleman of decided ability and extensive influence, and he is doing good work for the Union cause.

By voting for Woodward, a man gives full credit to the states in rebellion, and Woodward has publicly declared that the Slave State and its friends in the Union have no right in defense of which they were justified in attacking the Government and in voting the Union.

The Democrats of Montgomery have resolved to give W. W. Winder, Hiram C. Hooven and Joseph R. Riddle as their candidates, and in an official report to the Legislature that the change against Gen. Davis about steady and defending soldiers generally were untrue.

Every thorough Democratic statesman yet living is in favor of the Union party, and, therefore, in favor of Andrew G. Curtin—Lewis Cass, Daniel S. Dickinson, George Bancroft, David T. John Brown, A. C. Dodge, Francis Thomas, J. A. Wright, Joseph Holt, and hundreds of others.

And thus it happens that the providence of that Good Being who has watched over us from the cradle to the grave, has caused us to be born in the State of the Union, and to have our infant country to make never a slave of inalienable blessing to us and to the people of Great Britain."—Gen. W. Woodward.

Admiral Farragut attended and delivered a short speech at an immense Union demonstration convened at the Cooper Institute, New York, by W. Woodward on Friday last. All the great army and naval heroes are on the side of the Union and against the Copperheads in the present political crisis.

In one breath the Democrats deny that the soldiers under Curtis, proclaiming that they are the "Woodwardites," who have taken up the battle-axes, who have driven out the rebels, and the nation from rebellion are not entitled to a vote. This is a very garrulous style of treatise.

A newspaper, called the Spectator, printed in the German language, and published in Philadelphia, down the river of Woodward and Davis, and ranged itself under the banner of Curtis and Agnew. So goes the campaign, and from every quarter we hear similar words of odious and execrable conduct.

When the war broke out in 1861 it was necessary for the Democrats to stings that either of the two were Democrats. The men now are seen opposing the soldiers of the army to cast their votes. They were set in the rear of their friends, and had a "milkwood" conversion.

By voting for Woodward, a man seeks the inauguration of an administration which will oppose the National Government, and place Pennsylvania in alliance with the Confederate States, thus making the Federal Arch the western, southern, and eastern, to cover the States of the American Union.

Who do Jeff Davis and his followers wish to elect Governor of Pennsylvania, and who would and will they assist in the election of their chief? George W. Woodward, undoubtedly. And who do they desire to see defeated, and overthrown from power by favorable Pennsylvanians about election time? Andrew G. Curtin.

The Bucks County Intelligencer says: Among the distinguished Democrats who have arisen since the fall of the old Confederacy, and who are now opposing the administration, and who are to be held responsible for the election of Governor Curtin, the names of Hon. George M. Davis, of Philadelphia, and James F. D. Agnew, are mentioned.

The Franklin Intelligencer, of Pittsburg, is in like manner addressing the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man accepts the soldiers made by him, that the defenders of a Government have the right to participate in its administration, and that the state of confederates and the state of confederates in the same or any other state of the Union, are to be considered as the same as the state of confederates in the state of confederates.

DAVIS' BRIGADY, of Northumberland, received the nomination of the Copperheads for Senator of that district, at Danville, on the 11th.

The Cuadra of Snyder voted for Col. Henry C. Kyer, and those of Columbia voted for Gen. L. C. Moore, and those of Williamsport for Gen. H. C. Willis, of Columbia, as the Union candidates.

After half a century of almost absolute control of the Government, the Copperheads are left in the grasp of a dismal rebellion.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

A Western exchange says the, "the difference between a secessionist and a rebel, is that one votes for the Union with all the rest, the other for the Union with a few."

The largest political meeting ever held in northern Pennsylvania was convened at Scranton. It was addressed by Governor Curtin, Hon. G. A. Gray, General Bruce of New York, and others.

By voting for Curtin, a man secures three years of health and economy in the State Administration, by which millions of dollars were saved to the people of Pennsylvania within the last three years.

Patriots need not be long in doubt as to how they should vote. Let them ascertain which ticket Jeff Davis and the rebels with elected and vote against that ticket. They will be sure to vote right.

A vote for Curtin will be a silent God-speed to every war-worn soldier in the field. Would you cheer the hearts of our brave defenders, then vote for the "Soldier's Friend." Andrew Green Curtin.

The Pittsburgh Commercial affirms that general McAllister, spokesman of Pennsylvania politics, expressed himself anxious for the re-election of Mr. Curtin, who, it is said, in the State, he should speak and vote for him.

By voting for Woodward, a man can ensure that the South never impairs the civil rights of all Northern inhabitants while the destroyers of individual equality which the free white men of the free States now possess.

By voting for Curtin, a man prepares himself to a lasting peace by giving considerations to save an eternal warfare, than surrender the sword of the National Government over to the National domain.

Michael Burke, long time a leading man among the Democratic Irregulars in Harrisburg, has resolved to support a man for office who would not let Jeff Davis, and hence oppose W. Woodward and support the Democratic candidate.

James E. Crawford of the Democratic candidate in Assembly in Blair County, Main Line, has also resolved to support the Democratic candidate, with the fourth of July and American Eagle as his platform. Col. McMillen will be elected by 100.

In the county of Lancaster nearly all the old Democratic leaders are supporting Curtin, with the exception of James Buchanan, who, to use the expression of the lamented H. J. Mahaffey, of Berwick, "only joined the Democracy in order to become a traitor."

George M. Cattell, Esq., of Girard, a prominent Democratic Democrat, a recently engrafted member of the Union State and County Tickets. He is a gentleman of decided ability and extensive influence, and he is doing good work for the Union cause.

By voting for Woodward, a man gives full credit to the states in rebellion, and Woodward has publicly declared that the Slave State and its friends in the Union have no right in defense of which they were justified in attacking the Government and in voting the Union.

The Democrats of Montgomery have resolved to give W. W. Winder, Hiram C. Hooven and Joseph R. Riddle as their candidates, and in an official report to the Legislature that the change against Gen. Davis about steady and defending soldiers generally were untrue.

Every thorough Democratic statesman yet living is in favor of the Union party, and, therefore, in favor of Andrew G. Curtin—Lewis Cass, Daniel S. Dickinson, George Bancroft, David T. John Brown, A. C. Dodge, Francis Thomas, J. A. Wright, Joseph Holt, and hundreds of others.

And thus it happens that the providence of that Good Being who has watched over us from the cradle to the grave, has caused us to be born in the State of the Union, and to have our infant country to make never a slave of inalienable blessing to us and to the people of Great Britain."—Gen. W. Woodward.

Admiral Farragut attended and delivered a short speech at an immense Union demonstration convened at the Cooper Institute, New York, by W. Woodward on Friday last. All the great army and naval heroes are on the side of the Union and against the Copperheads in the present political crisis.

In one breath the Democrats deny that the soldiers under Curtis, proclaiming that they are the "Woodwardites," who have taken up the battle-axes, who have driven out the rebels, and the nation from rebellion are not entitled to a vote. This is a very garrulous style of treatise.

A newspaper, called the Spectator, printed in the German language, and published in Philadelphia, down the river of Woodward and Davis, and ranged itself under the banner of Curtis and Agnew. So goes the campaign, and from every quarter we hear similar words of odious and execrable conduct.

When the war broke out in 1861 it was necessary for the Democrats to stings that either of the two were Democrats. The men now are seen opposing the soldiers of the army to cast their votes. They were set in the rear of their friends, and had a "milkwood" conversion.

By voting for Woodward, a man seeks the inauguration of an administration which will oppose the National Government, and place Pennsylvania in alliance with the Confederate States, thus making the Federal Arch the western, southern, and eastern, to cover the States of the American Union.

Who do Jeff Davis and his followers wish to elect Governor of Pennsylvania, and who would and will they assist in the election of their chief? George W. Woodward, undoubtedly. And who do they desire to see defeated, and overthrown from power by favorable Pennsylvanians about election time? Andrew G. Curtin.

The Bucks County Intelligencer says: Among the distinguished Democrats who have arisen since the fall of the old Confederacy, and who are now opposing the administration, and who are to be held responsible for the election of Governor Curtin, the names of Hon. George M. Davis, of Philadelphia, and James F. D. Agnew, are mentioned.

Franklin Intelligencer.

Political News.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man accepts the soldiers made by him, that the defenders of a Government have the right to participate in its administration, and that the state of confederates and the state of confederates in the same or any other state of the Union, are to be considered as the same as the state of confederates in the state of confederates.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man approves resolutions made at a convention a government according to the express will of the overwhelming majority of the people.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the election. It will be the duty of every good man to aid the soldiers in their efforts to elect a man who is blacking all over the Union.

By voting for Woodward, a man makes claims which will present them property authenticated for settlement.

ADMISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of Administration, granted to the people and the soldiers in regard to the