Both were recommended by the court for mercy, but the President had no theory for the white man, and up no interry for the white man, and up no inducent for the double crime of the negre. How unjustly functions com-plet its within to act is, in these ca-am, strongly illustrated.

Tax first threatenting of danger to Mains from a mid of the Confederates from the count of New Brunswich, is followed by the immediate ordering of two gentouts to her consta. Pennor two gentoess so arr consts. Frem-aylvania's borders may file and hav-lain extindy exposed for a whole year, and when danger arises the State is loft to take care of itself. After having placed more men in acroice than any other State and robbed herself of her natural profections this is the treatment moted out to her. Had the land of Pean been a Yankee State it might have been caberwise.
