ate The correspondence between Mr. the humiliating fact that the Admin. istration intend to ignore the ancient faith of the Republic, disregard the almost unanimous sentiment of the country as expressed in the late reso-lution of the House, and cringingly acquiesce in the establishment of a Monarchy at our very doors. Says Mr. Seward to Mr. Dayton, under date of April 7: "You will of course, take notice that the declaration made by the House of Representatives is in the form of a joint resolution, which before it can acquire the character of a legislative act, must receive first the conquerence of the Senate, and secondly, the approval of the President of the United States, or in case of his dissent, the renewed assent of both Houses of Congress, to be expressed by a majority of two-thirds of each by a majority of two-thirds of each body. While the President receives the declaration of the House of Representatives with the profound respect to which it is outilled as an exposition of its views upon a grave and impor-tant subject he directs that you inform the government of France that he does not at present contemplate any de-parture from the policy which this gevernment has hitherto pursued in regard to the war which exists between France and Mexico." The cowardice here exhibited by the President and Mr. Seward is enough to bring the lush of shame to the cheek of svary American who has the honor and dig nity of his country at heart. Mr. Se ward goes to a great deal of trouble to explain to the French government that the resolution of the House of Representatives has no leg acter of a legislative act it would have to be concurred in by the Senate and approved by the President. However well the may namer as an explana-tion to the Franch government, it will be viewed with great description by the American people who can not bein feeling that the American name has been discovered and diagra-led through the towardy and transTHE CLEVELLED CONTENTON
