Northern Elections.

The elections in the North on Tuesday The elections in the North on Tuesday last show that the majority are opposed to Limonia Administration. The Democrate carried New York, New Jersey, Illinois and probably wisconsin. Muss achoests and Michigan, by reduced majorities, want for the Republicans.—
The "Herald" says New York city gave the Democrate 31,000 majority. The Democratic State Ticket of New York was elected—Horatic Seymonr being elected—Horatic Seymonr being elected—Horatic Seymonr elected in New York so far as heard from.

its own ruin. England sione, if she could raise a sufficient cotton supply in her possessions, would be the gainer, but the United States would be hopelessly bank-rupt, with all the sources of wealth destroyed, and no possibility for future recuperation. The South would fall little the strong man in the temple, dragging down the Philiatines with him. But, happily, no such fate is in reserve for the South. The just God, who rules in the armies of heaven and among the inchalitante of earth, and who has hitherto baffled the devices of our enemics, will continue to nid us in our struggle for independence of the most corrupt and
