Every honest and unprejudiced mind must see, and acknowledge with a feeling of mortification, the true convex of our national knowledge with a feeling of mortifica-tion, the true source of our national troubles and deep disgrace. To mar-row it down the cause must appear as absurd as the Lillipution war about the end at which the egg should be broken before it is caten. The Democratic party maintain that our government was formed by white men to be con-troled by white men for the prosperity and happiness of their race. The and happiness of their race. The Republican party contend that the ne-gro is entitled to equality with the white man—that he must be included white man—that he must be included and recognized in all our institutions, and have a vote and voice in all our state and national affairs. This is the question—this the delusion that has dissevered and ruined the country and and have a vote and voice in all our state and national affilies. This is the question—this the delusion that has dissevered and ruined the country and threatena to involve the white man in bloodsh d. Must we lose our own freedom in an attempt to free the negro? It ought to require but a very triffing amount of common sense to settle this question justly and forever, but then—
