BRILLING OF THE GREAT YARKES FLEXT.—The great Yarkes floot, which has been getting ready for asveral weeks, sailed from Hampton Route on Tessibay last for the Bonili. The fleet sambled about one hundred vessels, and the soid to have on board about twesty-five thousand mote.

The exemy, as is their wont, misrepresented their loss at Leeberg, stating at first that their loss is killed, wounded, drowned, and missing was only 200, and this, too, when we had 607 princures in Biokmond taken in that fight. The New York Frening Post, seeling that their false-hand would not essaye expenses asknowledges a loss of 1800 is killed, wounded, drowned and missing, and says that their less in character will be much greater than is represented by this nomber.
