We have given the people all the time we can possibly allow to make their returns in, without incurring a heavy penalty upon ourselves. The law requires us to assess the taxable property of the county, and make out the books by the last of February.

We, therefore, warn all persons that this is positively the last opportunity they will have to give in their returns within the thine allowed, will certainly be reported to our Collectors, and rebe reported to our Collectors, and re-paired to pay double taxes.

Property will be assessed at its mar-cetable value the 1st day of October, 1801.

We have instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury to allow no credit for debts; and all property held the 1st day of October, 1861, must be returned.
