Some vain persons have been so weak and sinked as to raise a question upon the merits of this case; yea, have gone so far as to say that sleeping in clurch, so far from being a duty, is a tisolitudy, and to all intents and putiposes, a sin. They allege that the church was built for the purpose of Divine tworship, and it is an insult to our Creator to go to sleep in it. They further allege that it is directed to the speaker and to ourself to do so. This is going a dreadful length, and is only another instance of the raided and extreme tendencies of the age. What! that a sin, which has existed in the Church from the days of the aposites themselves, even under Paul's preaching? You remember the atriking example of that worthy young man, Butyches. As in, indeed Il it is not is securible act in me to waste time and arguments upon such vain cavillers.—The quistrom practice of the Church (especially on warm afternoons) for eighteen hundred years is decisive.

Assuming, then, that it is a duty, let us consider the manner of performing it. I hold that, the all other Univisitin practices, there ought to be involved in the passes, there ought to be involved in the manner.
