MISSOURIANS CAPTURED.

Not far from St. Louis, Mo., the Federal troops came in great force unexpectedly upon about $200 of the militing of that State, and took them prisoners of war. After the surrender of the State in filting, whilst surrounded by many citiens as spectators, with women and children in the crowd, a shot was fired by some one which wounded one of the Federal officers, who, as he fell, gave three of his companies fired, killing and wounding some twenty persons, some women and children in the number.

There is now great excitement in that State.
