Our navance came up with the enemy at New Hope, 5 miles east of Daton, at mon on Weinesday, the 25th,—flood's corps was the first in the fight. Parts of two divisions, Stevenson's and Hindman's, only were engaged. We had but one line of battle—the osseny charged twice and were handsomely repulsed.

Gen. Cammings severely wounded in the battle sale shaved to the fierce Moloch of the first of the first of two divisions, Stevenson's and war. What an array of stalwart manhood; of vigorous, mobile youth, await the coming down!

How much of patriotism and promise; of long the first of the sice of the wounded, and immense quantities of arms and acconfroments. Gen. Clebume was the assemble of the luman antifering that must be entered by the construction. Between 500 and 1000 dead were left close up to his front. Their fine of the close up to his front. Their fine or threat works in front of Loring's command was abandoned. Our loss will probably sumber 400 or 500. The army of Gen. Johnston, like that of Gen. Loo, is not at all discouraged by his "autwace backwards," but is in the his "autwace backwards," but is in the very best spirits and confident of the very best spirits and confident of the confident of the very best spirits and confident of the confident of the very best spirits and confident of the confident of the very best spirits and confident of the confident of the very best spirits and confident of the very must give up those these the very t
