John anneage need Jonetham.

Said brother Jonatham to John,

"You are the elder bers,
And I can beer santher's here,
But net your slightest soons.
You're lived a file of noble strife,
You're made a world your own
My, when I follow in your steps
Beceive me with a groan?

"And if you'd give me, brother John, The sympathy I crave, And stretch your warm fraternal hand Across the Atlantic wave,

Said brother John to Jonathan

And here's my hand, 'tie freely giv-I atrotch it o'er the brine,

I areach it o'er the brine,
And wish you from my heart of heart
A higher life than mine.
Together let us rale the world,
Together work and thrive;
For if you're only twenty-one
I'm soarcely thirty-five.

"And I have strength for nobler work
Than e'er my hand has doos,
And realms to rolls and truths to plant
Beyond the rising son.
Take you the West and I the East,
We'll apreadd ourselves abroad,
With trade and spade and wholesome laws,
And faith in Mru and Ood.

"Take you the West and I the East!
We speak the self-same tongue
Thet Milton wrote and Chatham spoke,
And Burne and Shakpeopte sung;
And from our tongue, our hand, our her
