POETRY. Hetter Late than Never

It we can keep ahead, 'tis well, But never try your neighbor. This noble when you can water Buy homes, justient labor. But, if you are outstrapped at last, Press on as bold are ever, Remember, though you are surpar. To better his than agent?

Ne'er labor for an idle boast Of victory o'er another,

Bot, while you strive your uttermost
Deal fairly with a brother.

Whate er your station, do your best,
And hold your purpose ever.

And if you fail to beat the rest,

Chance well the path in which Succeed by noble during. Then, though the last, when or Your crown is worth the wea Then never fret if left behind.

J. B. ANTONE'S
LADIES' FANCY

CONFECTIONARYSTORE

Now since we've seen, what St. Nick from afar, Ind bring to children, in his tiny car, We now will see what's always kept on hand, At J. B. Antone's that well known stand. To please good children, Antone's the man, And they to piease him, must do all they can, For he with trouble and great care, For them these succet things did prepare.

Gar lads and merry maidens!
Come listen to my song,
And if you d like to sing it,
The tone is "Lacy Long
Oh." take your time, my darlings.
But let that time be seen:
And quickly go for what you want
To John B. Andmer Sulices.

You'll alway's find there, when you go, Whatever's in his line,

Whatever's in his line, And you'll confess it when you do, this note is choice and time. Oh! take your time, not durlings, But let that time beroon, And if you cannot go, why send To John B. Antone's Schom.

To John B. Antone's Scioon.

It keeps the best of Caudie,
and every thing that's nice.

In Winer, Cakes and Cordisis, in Suminer, Creams and Ice.
Oh, hase your time, my lovelies,
But let your time be soon,
To go or send for what you want
To John B. Antone's Sulson.

To go or send for what you want, To John R. Anten's Subon.
Preserves—the best of Jellies, And Fruis most rich and rare; Fine App le, Orange, Jenson, And Grinos—ll are therefore, And for the time be secon. For what you want you'll always find And John B. Asland: Subon. And also for the holidays, (You know they're jost at hand,) le last the best assertment. Be last the best assertment. To jelease your children, beat of the first hand, and also for the holidays. To jelease your children, beat on Drop in and bur them Christians Toyr, At John B. Astoner's Subon.
And what will please the Minsen, And this to them I sing. The keeps the assected Kursen's Them take your time, Young Gallants, But let that time be soon; ou'll always please the Ladder At John B. Astoner's Subon.

And now, a word at parting— Tis John B. Antone can make— Young Gentlemen and Ladies! The Beer of "Wanning Care!" Oh! take your time young Lovers!

But let your time be goon.
