We copy the following from the New Orleans Commercial Bulletin of Dec. 14:
The "Starty Secretary of Shate" her at lempth twaved up in Austin, Texas, in which sit he arrived some two manks aims, when he has been stadying in that place for the ministry, intending to enter the Methodist Isinerary. These facts we learn from the Austin Intelligencer, of the 5th, from which paper we take the extract annexed to these remerks. We have conversed with several gestlemen who knew Realf well while here, and they all believe him to be, new that his character is unveiled, the basest cooppristor of old Brown's gang. He is extraordinarily gifted, both as a writer and speaker, and as a consumate hypeserite of the villainous Ingerstamp.
When we recall the role which be played have—him fanatic abborrence of square of those trivial indugeosic incided to youth; the never-sessing ineration of his Bilal lore; in pions ones about thite children; and the innumerable other traits that mark the snake-like sleekness of his disposition—se cansust but regard him as one of the most subtle from the Sueth sould have in her midst. Brown and others, true to their compact, made the desparate venture, but Realf, after having kept the cast of section; our while among the very people where lives and property were threatened, now proclaims his compileity with the effrostery of a bawd. In fact, he is pround of his notoriety, and regress that his history was not known in that place before he lectured there, as then he would have had a much larger audience.

To show the true shareter of the man, we may remark that wishin the chart space of a few months he has resided a gentleman of this city out of some three serious and embraced Catholicity, and a gain returned to his Ent faith. And further, et it is well known that he has a signified a gentleman of this city out of some three handsaid dellars. But to the extract. The editor of the Metellycencer, upon seeing

PRHISTLYANIA, EXECUTIVE CHAMBER.

Harrisburg, P. a., Dec. 1, 1859.

Your letter of the 20th, having been missenest be Harrisonburg, Va., was not resoired until this morning. Of all the desperadose to whom you refer, soil a man, as far set on learn, was a stitute of Pennsylvania; nor was their rendezvous, which you say, was suchestracted by guard or otherwise, in this State, but in Maryland or Varyminia. In relation to show Pennsylvania has done her duty Virginia has no right to anticipate that she will not do so in the future. The information yea have reseived in regard to a comprisery to recease John Brown will, undeabeedly, be found in the sequal stretty and custrely wightest foundation, so far as Pugnaylvania is conserved. Nor will we permit any portion of our territary, along our borders or clearwhees, to be made a depot, a reader was upon our Southers neighbons. When that cestingency shall happen, the constitutional and confederate duty of Pennsylvania shall be performed, and, ander all circumstances, she will take sare to see that her honor is fally vindicated.
