ngfield, Now., August 15th, 18c2. A Nogro Fuveston.

We are informed by a gentleman resid-ing in the Southern part of this temeship that, a few evenings rines, three big. ug-ly, black female piggers came to a farm Bouse in his neighbo hood and asked to stay all night. But they were told they! sould not stay.

A few moments after the series of the wenches—the sentras having the affair all arranged—there came a second lot, consisting of four big, ugly, black male niggers. The family became still more arguers. and ranging seasons still more frightened at this new feature in 'politics', and they could give them their supper, but could not possibly accommodate them

ngfield, Now., August 15th, 18c2. A Nogro Fuveston.

We are informed by a gentleman resid-ing in the Southern part of this temeship that, a few evenings rines, three big. ug-ly, black female piggers came to a farm Bouse in his neighbo hood and asked to stay all night. But they were told they! sould not stay.

A few moments after the series of the wenches—the sentras having the affair all arranged—there came a second lot, consisting of four big, ugly, black male niggers. The family became still more arguers. and ranging seasons still more frightened at this new feature in 'politics', and they could give them their supper, but could not possibly accommodate them
